

DIOR DIARIES

HEIDI brings you the highlights and best takeaways from the luxury label's iconic first showstopper in the country, which brought together the best of Indian, Asian and international fashion.

"It's a very exciting moment for us. It's like India shines on the global fashion map!"
- Anne Holm

In the last week of March, we saw the Gateway of India in Mumbai transform into a fashion hotspot, with the city's elite of the industry — from top models and actors from the West to the biggest celebrities in India — congregating at the iconic location for the first ever Dior fashion show in the country.

Shining the spotlight on the extraordinary landscape of India's rapid ascent, Creative Director Maria Grazia Chiuri worked with master calligrapher at Mumbai's Charitit International and Charitit School of Call to bring to life creations that became part
