

The historic Subway of India in Agra, India, is the venue for the event, showcasing an exquisite blend of India's rich heritage and fashion.

"It's important to celebrate the creativity of the artists and culture of India, while giving them a contemporary flavor. Our collective brings this language to life!"
— Maria Grazia Chiuri

of a time-making collection. Dear friends for more than 50 years, Maria and Christiano have driven Karimnagar from the state of Gujarat to become and retain India's textile and global hub of industry. By honoring exceptional craftsmanship with Christiano, Maria celebrated the beauty of India's heritage, bringing together an craft and fashion culture at the state level such before.

"We are finally here in Mumbai! It's a dream come true to present a collection in a city and a continent I love so much!" Maria said. "The collection is the most exciting and authentic work of the most important person in my life that I've shared with Christiano. Next will be the Director of Christiano International, Nishal Shah for more than 20 years. I'd be so happy to India and an event made for the night's celebration."

AN ICONIC SETTING

In order to bring their modeling relationship with India and its rich heritage, Christiano, the Fall 2023 show was off their longstanding India-European relations and celebrating an iconic milestone's historic. Christiano of India was transformed into a grand setting, with a modernist runway wing flanked by a series of modernist towers and a massive tree crafted by over 300 master artists of the Christiano Atelier and the women from the Christiano School of Fashion.

Visitors to India have crafted their own, by showcasing local fabric, with patchwork and embroidery to welcome guests into their home. The Gateway, seen as a symbolic entrance to India, served as a living metaphor for the historic moment-making collaboration. The vibrant conditions required 15,000 hours of handwork, with intricate details such as floral, intricate work, French knotting and Kirtis, with intricate embroidery like thistles, sunbells, stars, signs and growth motifs that mark this piece of art come to life. Adding to the charm and grandeur of this incredible show was her music by state maestro Anandita Rai and others.

The structure was draped with a 100% silk fabric.

A FABULOUS COLLECTION

Feeling a sense of joy and excitement that can come to go to a country and its culture is what Maria wanted to accomplish with the French fashion house's Fall 2023 collection. The line was inspired by her own to explore the collaboration, working relation and friendship that's continued for her decades with India, Karimnagar and her work in Mumbai.

Maria chose vibrant colors and materials that combined her influence shared with Karimnagar with trends and clothing items that captured the spirit of time, allowing her to celebrate her heritage. It takes their unique blend to offer to her of grace, softness and people who understand the history of the nation and its culture, with respect to traditional Indian craftsmanship, jewelry, fabrics and motifs.

"I personally wanted to celebrate and showcase the incredible history of India in the field of fashion, the history of the nation and its culture, with respect to traditional Indian craftsmanship and Christiano's mission to preserve India's history and culture, portrayed by each individual's technique," and Dior's creative director. The collection is now being showcased Maria's long-standing relationship with India. With the idea of creating and showcasing strong crafts, color combinations, including jewelry, shoes and hair, is a celebration of culture. Her mission is to showcase the work of India's rich heritage and fashion. Her mission is to showcase the work of India's rich heritage and fashion. Her mission is to showcase the work of India's rich heritage and fashion.

A COVETED GUEST LIST

Adding to the glamour of the collection and the historic location was the star-studded guest list for the night. The show was hosted by Karimnagar, with guests from India, including actors, actresses, models, and other celebrities. The event was a celebration of India's rich heritage and fashion. Her mission is to showcase the work of India's rich heritage and fashion. Her mission is to showcase the work of India's rich heritage and fashion. Her mission is to showcase the work of India's rich heritage and fashion.

